Solstice Arts Centre is announced as a finalist in The Zurich LAMA Awards 2009

We are delighted to announce that we have been nominated for a prestigious 'Zurich Lama Award 2009'.

The Local Government, City & Council awards were created to honour exemplary projects within the community. They seek to generate recognition of the efforts, accomplishments, and positive contributions of the individuals, companies and local government authorities who make these happen.

Solstice Arts Centre has been named a finalist in the category of Best Arts Building. Other nominees in this category include Birr Theatre, Co, Offaly; Butt Hall, Co Derry; CIT Cork City School of Music, King House, Co Roscommon; Mullingar Arts Centre; and Wexford Opera House.

Winners will be revealed at a Gala ceremony on Saturday 24th January 2009 at the CityWest Hotel, Dublin and will be hosted by Primetime presenter - Miriam O'Callaghan.
