Tall Tales Theatre Co. provide a fresh and brilliant reminder of different approaches to theatre – The Scotsman 2008

Do you want to work in Professional Theatre?

Here is a super opportunity from Meath Arts Office, Solstice Arts Centre and Tall Tales Theatre Company, to watch a thrilling new Irish Play go from Page to Stage.

Tall Tales Theatre Company are one of Ireland's most talented and dynamic independent theatre companies and are now based at Solstice Co. Meath.

We want to work with artists from our home county and so invite you to apply for the position of Assistant Director on our forthcoming production of Moment, a riveting new Irish drama by celebrated Meath playwright Deirdre Kinahan.

This is a fantastic learning opportunity where you will work closely with professional theatre director David Horan throughout the rehearsal and production process. As assistant you will attend rehearsals from October 12 to November 8 at The LAB, Dublin and for Production and Opening Week at Solstice November 9 to 14. Moment opens at Solstice on Friday 13th November and transfers to the Project Arts Centre, Dublin. The Assistant will be paid a fee of €2000 for his participation in the project and will work from 10am to 6pm Monday to Saturday during the rehearsal process.

If you are studying theatre, have an interest in directing professionally or have experience in directing for theatre please send your CV and a short introductory paragraph to :
